As the Wheel Turns

No high school student knows the thrilling moment when the dusty SIGNET is taken off the shelf and scanned by the wistful eyes of its owner. As he leafs through the annual, he remembers the problems of homework, the fun of sports and school activities, and the beauty of the dances. Now the SIGNET is just an autograph book with Best of Luck from all of your friends. Years from now it will suddenly become a storehouse of memories and a tonic for youthfulness. It is for the tomorrows that the SIGNET Staff of 1966 has compiled the main events of this School Year.

When we look at our high school days ten years from now, we might find life at Effingham High similar to a wheel. The focal point of school, the learning process, could be the hub of the wheel. The wheel, however, must have other parts to make it roll. The spokes represent each aspect of school life; the rim represents the student body. Each part of the wheel is joined together. The spokes are fastened to the hub and encircled by the rim. Just like the wheel, the school would not roll smoothly if all parts were not united. Let's look at 1966 at Effingham High as the wheel turns.

Fashions at E.H.S.

This Was the Year . . .

The henley neck made its debut this year.

High school days are remembered by different people in different ways. Some will remember the teachers; others will remember the students; one group will remember the activities; still others will remember the clothes we wore. All the pictures in the annual reveal the clothes which are the most popular this year. This page, however, is reserved entirely for the fashions at E. H. S. in 1966. Years from now, we can look at this page and easily remember that this was the year. . .

that penny loafers were the most popular shoes for both boys and girls.

that burgundy reigned as the most popular color.

that velour sweaters made their debut.

that wing tip shoes regained popularity.

that girls wore knee socks.

that a group of Senior boys tried to establish yellow cords.

that girls wore clothes styled after Grannie's.

that paisley appeared in boys' fashions.

that benchwarmer coats were worn.

that boys wore Bonanza shirts.

that western ideas influenced the styles in clothes.

that brushed denim appeared.

that zip turtle neck shirts were worn.

that empire dresses were popular.

that girls wore boy boy sweaters.

that surfer crosses were "in".

that shoulder bags were carried.

that boys wore black socks.

Ten years from now we will laugh at the styles that are "in" today. We will think to ourselves, "How could I have worn those clothes?"

As summer approached, many donned surfer crosses.

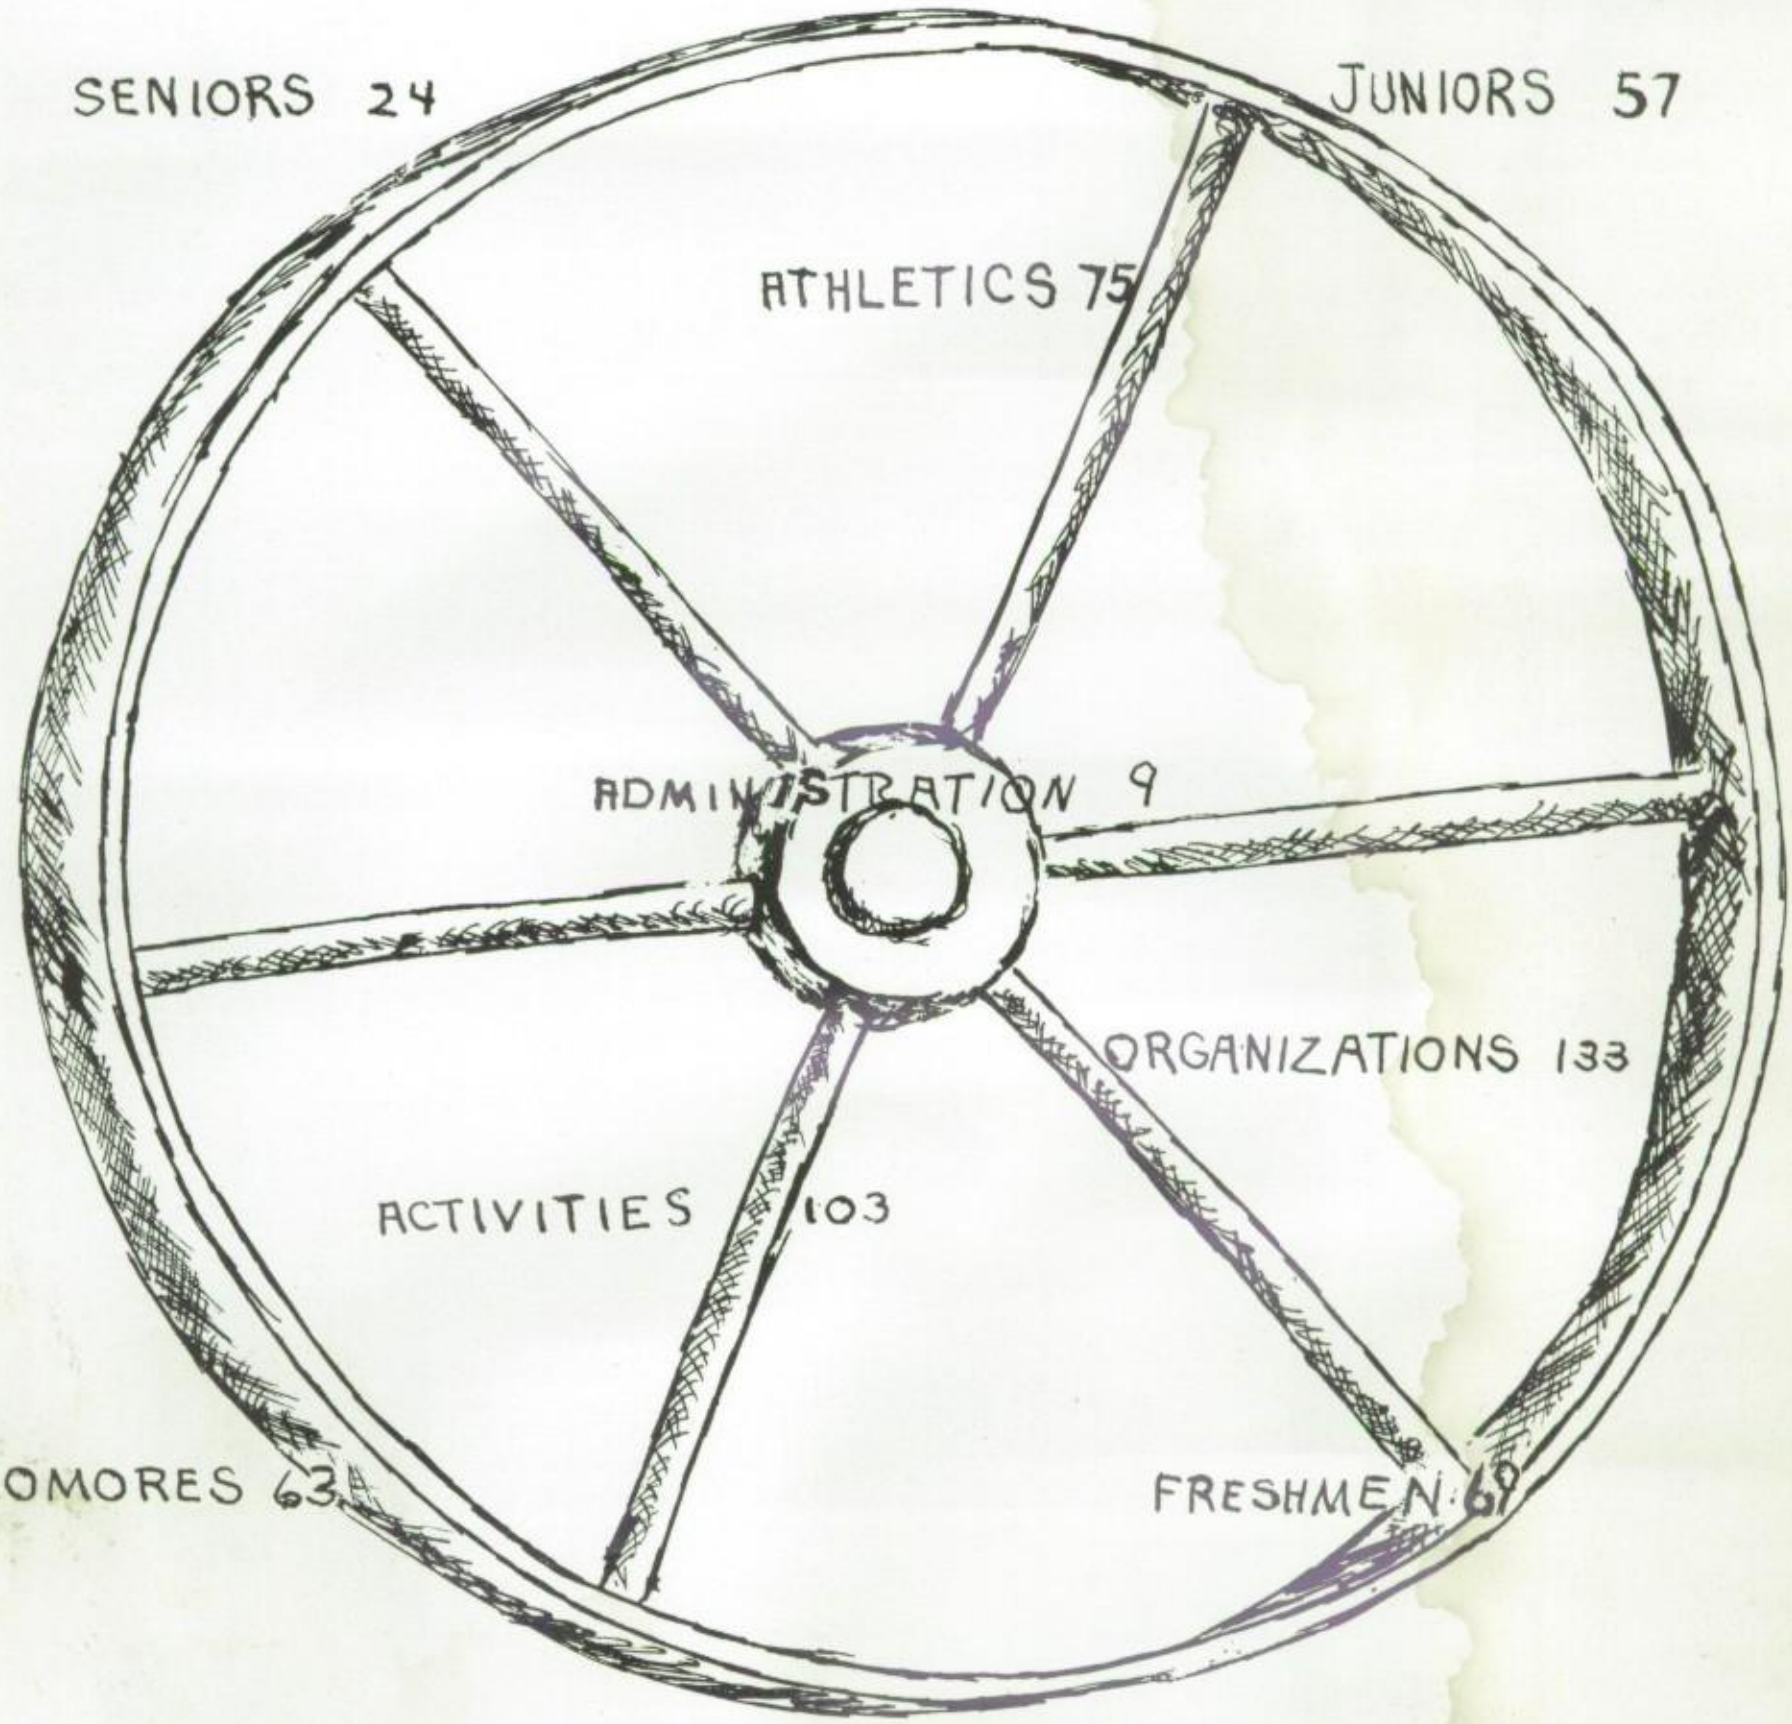
Shoulder bags and knee socks became fashions for girls.

Yellow cords are made to be painted.

Charm bracelets,- started several years ago, were still popular this year.

Boys and girls alike wore both brown and black penny loafers.

TABLE of CONTENTS



We Dedicate Our Yearbook

Some individuals are forced to live up to a name because a close relative made that name outstanding. Other people must live up to a name because of its meaning. For example, how can a man be sloppy, mean, or sarcastic when neatness is part of his name? He cannot. Mr. Neet, our pre-college rhetoric instructor truly does live up to his name.

Mr. Neet upholds his name both in and out of the classroom. He is always willing to help a student with any type of problem. Many times, students who are having difficulty with English can be found in his room where Mr. Neet is trying to straighten them out. School does not end at four o'clock for this teacher. He spends many evenings either at home grading papers or at school sponsoring activities.

In return for all that he has given the student body, we could not have offered him sums of money or piles of gifts. Money is spent and forgotten; gifts are worn out and thrown away. We wanted something which could be saved so that the future students would know how much we appreciated his efforts. We, the staff of 1966, chose to dedicate our Signet to a man who is himself dedicated.

From the Principal

Dear Students:

Our lives can be compared to a tiny silk thread that we hold in our hand. At an early age the thread can easily be broken and our lives destroyed. As we grow, our education and our experiences add additional threads until we have a thick strand. It is at this point that the quality of our education and experiences count. Our strand can be rough with poor filament or smooth and strong with superior threads. As we look at our lives, we can say one thing: "I am responsible for my weaving and I am strong or weak and can blame no other."

Very truly yours,

Harold E. Voyles

Jerry Nelson
gets in shape.

What is cross country? Few students know the answer to this question. In short, cross country is a running sport in the fall of the year. It is different from track in that the course is across the country, not on an oval track. Runners usually jog between 1.8 or 2.0 miles over hills, through fields, and on roads. Most of our home meets are scheduled in and through the community park. This year's team consisted of Jerry Nelson, Steve Lister, Forrest Holland, Bill Lemay, Mike Wakefield, Larry Listilla, Dave Ring, Phillip Davidson.

Nelson moves ahead of his opponent to rake in another victory.

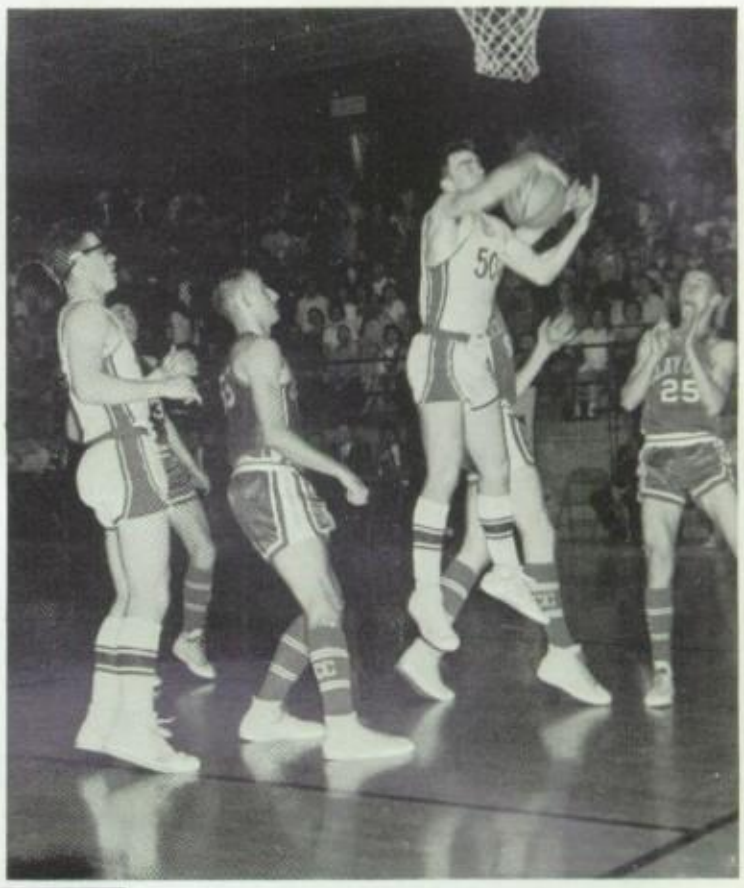
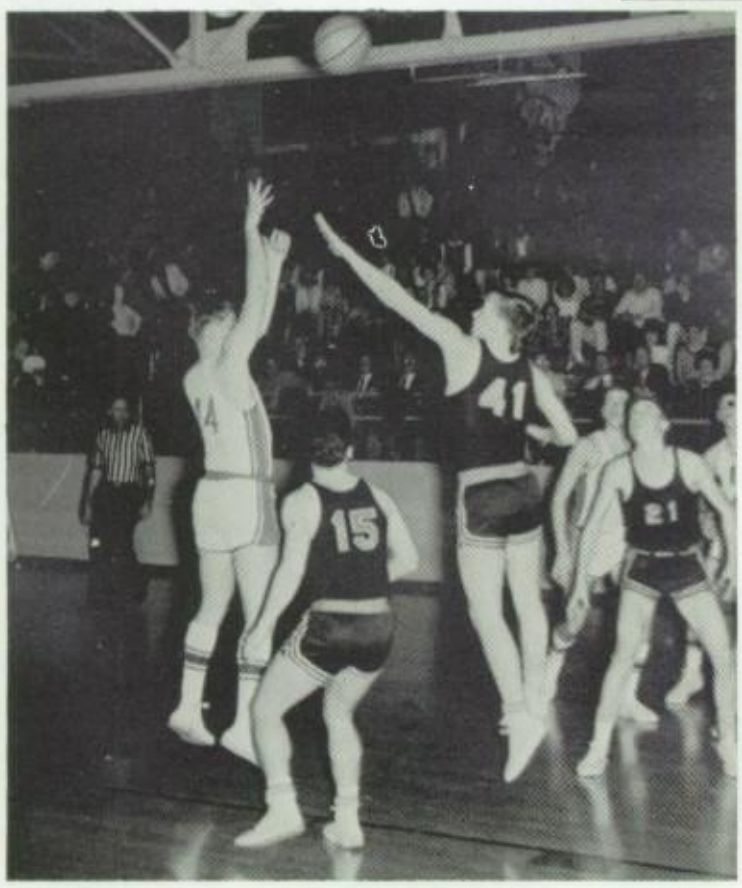
Seems to be a disagreement here.

Two points for Fitz

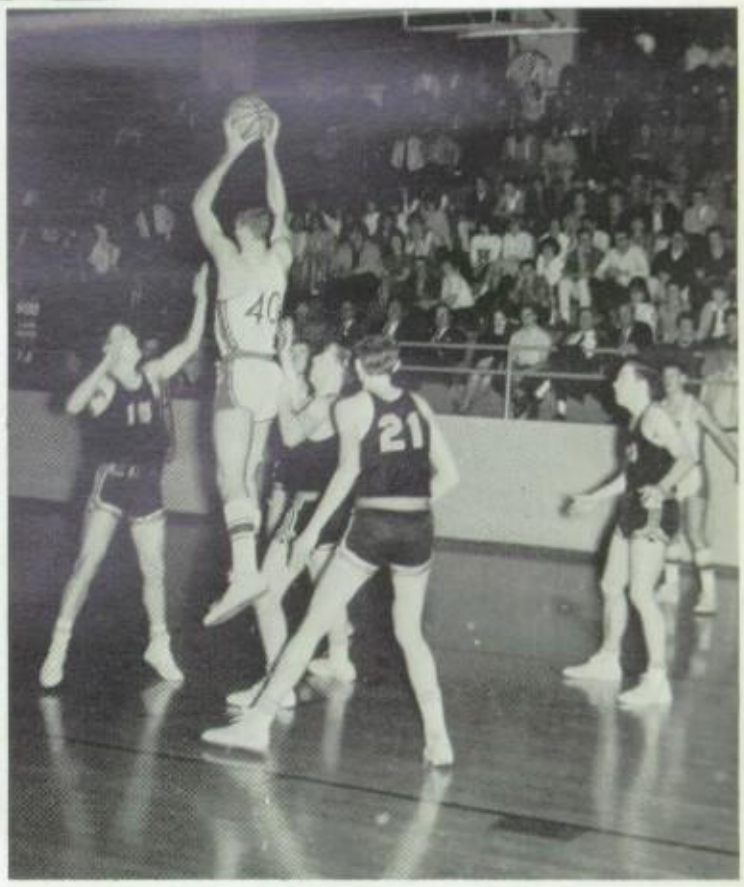


No one'll get it from Crain

Wait John! He's on your side.



What form!



Watch out! I'm coming down.

Cage Teams Honored

Four boys won the highest honors at the banquet. Two sophomores, F. Holland and G. Meyers, won the scholastic award together with a 3.17 average. J. Klosterman was named the captain of next year's team. Our 6'6 all stater, Pat Fitzsimmons, walked away with three awards. He was named most valuable player of the season; he won the free throw award; he was awarded the Mr. Basketball trophy for the third straight year.

Everyone enjoyed the banquet.

G. Brummer receives his letter.

LETTER WINNERS

SENIORS: P. Fitzsimmons, G. Brummer, C. Williams, D. Morgan, K. Koenig.

JUNIORS: J. Klosterman, J. Nelson

SOPHOMORES: R. Arnold, S. Klosterman, F. Holland, D. Ring, G. Lister, G. Meyers.

Fitz, Klosterman, Meyers, and Holland hold the holiday trophy.

At Awards Banquet

The evening's program was divided between six different individuals. Coach Ball introduced the freshman team. Coach Fuelle presented the unbeaten sophomores and junior varsity teams. Mrs. Freese gave the cheerleaders their letters. Coach Deterding handed out the varsity letters. The principal speaker was the head basketball coach at L.S.U. - Frank Truitt. Gene Niccum was the master of ceremonies for the event.

The speaker, Frank Truitt, is coach at Louisiana State.

LETTER WINNERS

MANAGERS: M. Askew, R. Goodwin, D. Davenport, B. Clark.
TRAINER: G. Thies.
STATISTICIAN: S. Devore.
CHEERLEADERS: L. Percival, D. Manuel, S. Bloemer, P. Ooton, J. Percival. D. Shaw.

This year's captain presented the cooks a plant on behalf of the team.

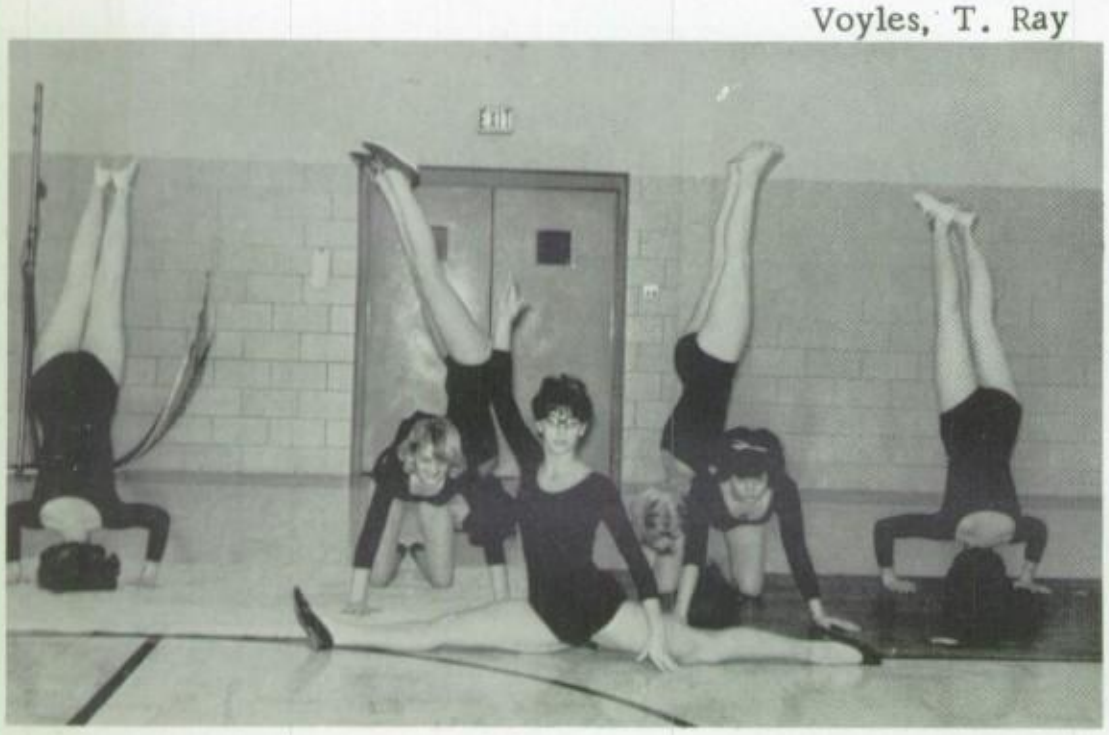
R. Arnold gets his varsity letter for this season.

Something New at

This year, for the first time, gymnastics classes were organized. There were two classes; one for girls one for boys. The girls worked on balance beams and the vaulting box. The girls also performed tumbling stunts.

During the half-time of a varsity basketball game and during the variety show, the girls presented a program, displaying their accomplishments.

ROW 1: N. Brrom, J. Percival, L. Gaddey, L. Percival P. Wente, M. Shaw, V. Pulliam, L. Chandlee, P. Wenthe
ROW 2: K. Bloemker, B. Spence, J. Banning, S. Downs, D. Crawford, M. Carpenter, K. Meyers, J. Miller ROW 3: C. Voyles, T. Ray



BALANCES

STUNTS PERFORMED ON THE VAULTING BOX

M. Shaw and P. Wente execute perfect form on the vaulting box

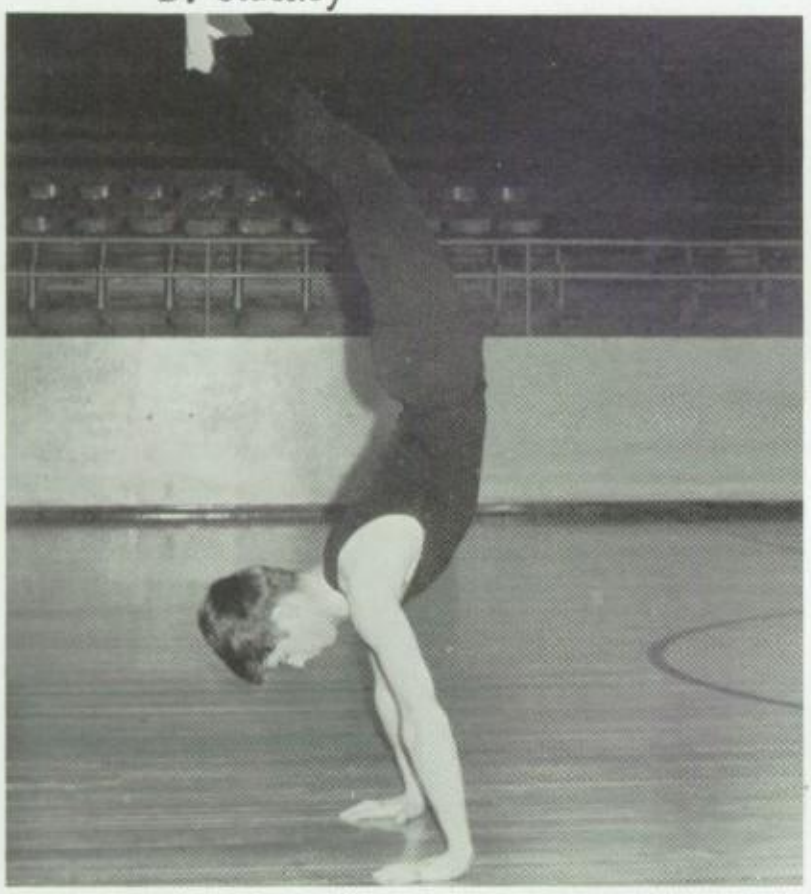
P. Wenthe on the balance beam

E.H.S. — Gymnastics

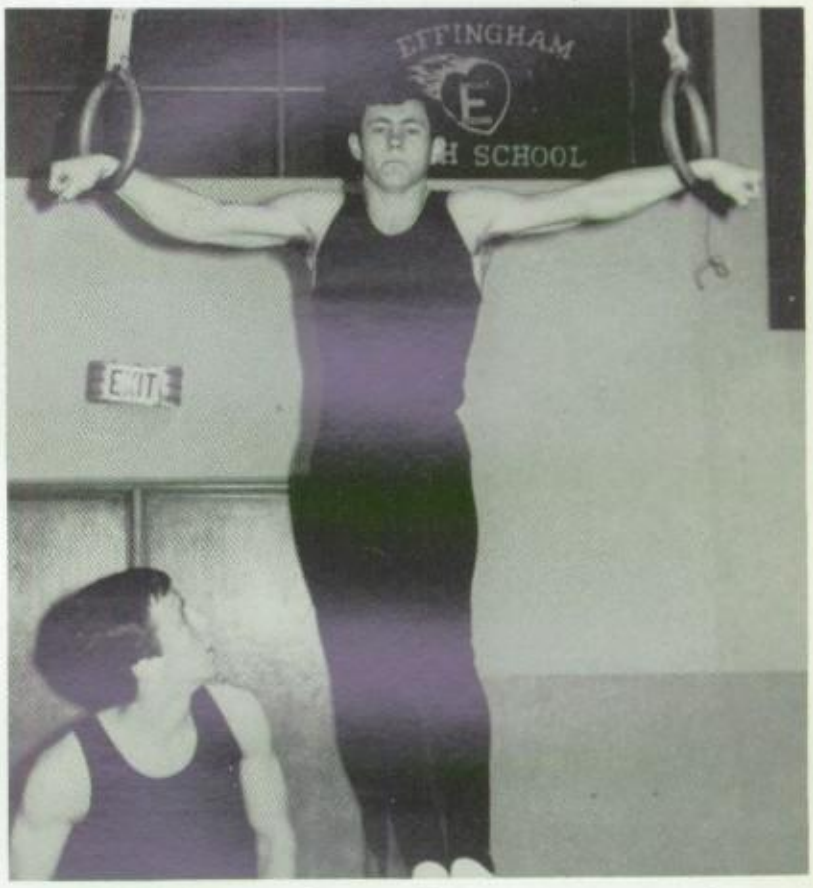
ROW 1: D. Croft, G. Lewis. ROW 2: P. Mc Whorter, W. Bowman, J. Cox, B. Newton, C. Shelley, F. Wines, M. Meitzer. ROW 3: M. Hatfield, M. Meitzer, G. Wagner, R. Koester, B. Krueger, K. Newburn. absent: D. Stuckey

One of the most outstanding and unusual entertaining events of the community this year was the gymnastic classes. They appeared at P.T.A. meetings, variety shows, basketball games, and school programs.

The boys developed routines in three main areas - parallel bars, tumbling and balances, and still rings. Gymnastics helps the boys to develop their muscles and coordinate their bodies.



M. Meitzer displays perfect form as he walks on his hands.



F. Wines performs the iron cross on the still rings.

Mc Whorter on the still rings.

C. Shelley on the parallel bars.

Miss Marja Lehtonen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lauri Lehtonen, Helsinki, Finland, became the first A.F.S. student to reign as Homecoming Queen at E.H.S. Marja, a junior, is taking American literature, art, English, and American history. During the year, Marja spent the first semester with Mr. and Mrs. Voyles, and resided with Reverend and Mrs. Beebe the second semester. Marja stated that she greatly enjoyed everything connected with her stay here.

Homecoming Weekend
October 1-2

Homecoming is perhaps the most exciting, hardest worked for, and most enjoyable activity of the school year. Friday afternoon, marching bands, decorated cars, and colorful floats modeled after the theme of Alice in Wonderland began our festivities. Friday night our football team, backed by yelling cheerleaders and a huge student body, provided a glorious 34 to 12 victory over Hillsboro. Saturday evening the weekend was highlighted by the annual Homecoming Dance, this year based on the theme Alice in Wonderland. To all those who gave their time and effort in the long weeks of preparation go the greatest rewards - a most wonderful 1965 Homecoming.

The Seniors again won first place in the class division.

F. F. A. won first honors in the club division.

Enchanting Holiday Season

A red and white ceiling, evergreens draped around the walls, a huge Christmas tree, a winter scene with a horse sleigh, music by the Trademarks, and a buffet in the rotunda: this was the setting as Miss Janet Wilhelms was crowned Holiday Queen. The senior attendants were Charolette Swanson, Terry Slifer, and Mary Jo West; junior attendant, Sue Cable; sophomore, Linda Reardon; freshman, Sandra Wakefield. The retiring queen of last year was Miss Mary Ann Kagay.

SWEETHEART DANCE

This was the sophomores first dance - still, Paradise Island was captivating. The sights and sounds of twilight on a Pacific Island filled the EHS gym. It was here, amid these surroundings, that the 1966 Sweetheart attendants were presented: Senior, Donna Yeakle; Junior, Heidi Anderson; Sophomore, Margie Beyer.

Marja With the Voyles'

Mr. Voyles, Cathy, Marja, and Mrs. Voyles.

Dear Students,

When I was chosen to be a foreign exchange student, I was afraid what the coming year might bring. After arriving in New York, I was pleasantly surprized to find that I could hear my U.S.A. high school band at the World's Fair. This experience gave me the feeling that the coming year would be succesful and enjoyable. In my American families, the Voyles' and the Beebees, I felt that I was one of the family. A foreign language and plenty of homework made me feel homesick, but my many friends, and parents, and brothers and sisters made me forget that feeling as fast as it came. I considered my duty to tell about my homecounrty, Finland, to the various clubs here in town a pleasure. Seeing your huge,wonderful country and learning to know Americans have given me many wonderful memories. Recently, I had been asked that if I could take this year over, would I do it. I surely would. I can call this year one of the best of my life. Thank you students for it very much.

Yours truly,

Marja Lehtonen

Enchanted Garden

Jr-Sr Prom

Huge mushrooms, colorful tulips, and towering grass surrounded the seniors at their last dance. They reminisced the past as the class will was read, and they looked into the future as the prophecy predicted. The traditional burying of the hatchet by the class presidents symbolized the friendship between the two classes. Music was by Ted Black and his band, and there was a buffet in the rotunda. The couples danced, talked, remembered, and created a wonderful memory for the future.

The buffet.

The burying of the hatchet.

The reading of the class will.

After the Prom, the festivities continued with a show at the theater - "Charade". Busses then transported the couples to the Elks where the Artistics provided the music for a dance. And afterwards.....

Class Prophecy

Jane Sipes
Sunset Boulevard
Hollywood, California
May 14, 1986

Dear Janet,

I have just returned to California from a visit to our hometown, Effingham, Illinois. It is surprising how much I learned about our high school graduating class of '66.

Who do you think I met and talked to in the beauty shop? Carol Chamberlain Kinkelaar who is living in St. Louis with Danny and their 10 blonde headed brats. She informed me of the drastic changes in the faculty at E. H. S. Bob Weaver is the new agriculture teacher; Jackie Banning is the head gymnastics instructor; Greg Conrad is the golf coach; Ron Goodwin is taking up where coach Gil Jones left off; Susan Sutton is the typing teacher; Myra Percival has a special poetry course; and Bob Tieffel and Richard Eident are the D. E. and D. O. instructors. The most enjoyable class is that of Professor Owen Williams which is Pre-College Sex. The Effingham Junior College has hired Linda Nelson as the head P. E. instructor, Perry Colclasure as a math instructor, and Joe Carr as the brilliant physics teacher.

While sitting under the hair dryer, I began reading the Life magazine. I was shocked to read that Sam Devore and Jennifer Hastings have bought all the Arthur and Kathryn Murray Dance Studios. Next month, Sandy Bloemker is beginning her debut in the broadway play, The Boys & I. Three whole pages were devoted to Knob Rentfrow modeling clothes for tall girls. The last page was a huge picture of Noel Potts winning the National Surfer's Championship.

Ruth Soltwedel, professor of agriculture at the U. of I., just walked in with the news that Johnson's funeral home, owned by Judy, has finally sold out to David Mills' funeral home. Tex and Kay Loy have been made managers of the Shell Oil Company. Glenn Lewis, who plays his hot trumpet at the Crystal Bar, has just cut a record "I'M IN LOVE WITH BRENDA." He predicts it to be a best seller.

Upon leaving the beauty shop, I turned in on N-E-E-T, the radio news program conducted by Mike Cooper. Gerald Fagan's recently constructed supermarket, the Big F, is opening in one week. Bob Beckler, Glen Campbell, and John Althoff, tri-owners of the Oasis were forced to close down their business for serving minors. A local resident, Terry Croft, has just been named Mr. Universe. Tonya Goen Bergfeld is obtaining ownership of an egg farm. Judy Heuerman and Barb Steele have completed their book How to Make a Good Conversation. Mary Blom and Sandy Winter have finally finished painting the ceiling of the world's largest discotheque on Bourbon Street in New Orleans. Pam Jennings was just elected the first woman mayor of Heartville.

While shopping in Fig Star, owned by Bobby Newton and managed by Mike Meitzner, I ran into our good friend Debbie Manuel who just returned from her honeymoon on Spencer's Mountain. Again, I discovered more information about our former classmates. Wanda Babbs, due to financial conditions is driving a 1936 Ford rather than her 1986 Cadillac. Sandy Triplett and Roger Sechrest traveled to France where they have replaced Margot and Jacques Farre in the French films. Joanne Bushue Byers is the Vice President of Byers' Accounting Firm. Carol Bahrns Hoeffliger lives on a farm with Roger. Terry Ashley has opened a Marshall Fields store with Debby Robertson and Karen Brewer as head clerks. Barbara and Charles Nelson have a prosperous, little business with Stevens' Antenna. Before leaving Fig Star, I noticed a new cake on the shelf discovered by Ruth Meyers, Linda Wendt, Marilyn Utz, and Vicki Hollman, in the test kitchens of Betty Flop.

Were you surprised to hear that Roy Rogers met a girl named Dale Evans and started a new TV series? Dennis Marxmann, Tom Townsend, and Larry Tonn are tri-owners of the largest farm in the State of Illinois. Sharon Leturno Bailey and Vicki Brooks Phillips have joined the WAVES. Judi Rush Miller works for the State Highway Department. Carolyn Hetzel and Gwen Payne have finally opened their fabulous bookstore, the Hetzel-Payne Corner. Audrine Bennet and Lynn Moody hold regular seances with James Parks, Ron Williams, Dave Wilson, John Tolch, and Ron West. They are trying to persuade Tom Tipsword, owner of Tippy's Tavern, to join them.

I heard that Mason, Illinois, is a blooming little town. Joe Bushue is the mayor with Vicki Bushue as his secretary. Linda Hays and Patrick Michael own a joint partnership in their men and women's clothing store with Sharon Mason as the bookkeeper. Judy Pasquele manages the Mason Drive-In. Rick Welch, owner of Welch's Wine Company, is having a difficult time keeping his product in stock. Dave Landers operates a rifle shop. Steve Kaiser's and Paul Huntington's Edgewood Drag-O Way burned down the other day. This will be disheartening news to Linda Percival Poland who will not be able to drag her "86" Vette.

I almost forgot to tell you about the main attraction of Effingham's night life. The multi-millionaires Tom Britton and Dirk Anderson have converted the court house into a swingin' nightclub. Much of its success goes to J. C. Marshall's and Bill Whitehouse's band, The Bald Five, and to Bill Krueger, who manages the gambling floor. Credit is also due to Tony Matlock, the bouncer.

Have you encountered any more of our classmates lately? Write soon and tell me what's going on in the "windy city."

Always,
Jane

Janet Wilhelms
Lakeshore Drive
Chicago, Illinois
June 1, 1986

Dear Jane,

On receiving your letter, I realized how little I have heard from some of my friends back home. Times have certainly changed. I was pleased to hear the accurate account of our classmates you have seen and heard from. I am equally sure that you will enjoy hearing of the ones I have had contact with.

The doorbell rang the other day; When I went to the door, Arvil Bass was standing there. He is a Boy Scout executive selling cookies. While conversing with him, Larry Ford drove by. Did you know that he is competing with A. J. Foyt at the Indianapolis '500?

Several of our classmates are now famous. Remember Mike Askew? He lost 120 pounds and since he was unable to play football, he took up tiddeley winks and is now World's Champion. Randy Brunet is a 6'10" all pro center of the Boston Celtics. Janice Beebe and Willis Inman are vocalists in the St. Louis Muni Opera. The TV series, "The Young Marrieds" is becoming more popular here since Mary Jo and Kelly Tucker have replaced Annerose and Steve Geibel. Don Steely's new book How to Become Mature in Ten Easy Lessons has hit the newstands. Linda Brummer has made a new record "LITTLE BRUMMER GIRL." Lenny and Larry Lane are the new stars of the Doublemint commercial. Also, Dannie Connally and Ken James star in the Brillcreme commercial--Ken's the one who comes out of the tube. Have you seen the movie, The Group? It is tremendous. I was really amazed to see the lead parts played so well by Candace Moeller, Jean Conour, Roberta Evans, Lydia Sigafus, Cheryl Barton, and Terry Slifer. They all displayed outstanding talent. That reminds me; Jack Conour received his PhD. from Vassar in that new course, twinology.

The latest gossip in and around Chicago is the resignation of Pat Fitzsimmons as head coach at Minnesota. Rumor has him going to Newton, Illinois. And, believe it or not, Bob Griffin was refused residency here due to his attitude. He thinks using an anesthetic is "busy work." Garret and Susan Wagner opened a school for gifted children--theirs! I talked to Susan only the other day. She visited in Champaign and had seen Patsy Soltwedel, Donna Yeakel, Karen Bingman, and Ann Brown. They had all just been promoted to private secretaries for a firm of very successful young businessmen.

I received a letter from Charlotte Swanson McManaway. Now that she and Marc are millionaires, due to his great success as a dentist, they're moving to Venezuela. She always wanted to go back. I hope they will be happy. She mentioned that she had seen John Osman and Richard Cutright. John owns John's Chevyland and is Richard's chief competitor. Richard owns Fairlaine Haven.

A few of our friends own their own companies here in Chicago. Francis Maxwell owns The Maxwell-house Coffee Company. Mike Mankin has his own art school. Sumie Kurachi is the karate instructor at Bill Rincker's Health Resort. Pam Jaycox Loy manages Loy's Hybrid Corn Farm. Carolyn Painter owns the DuPont Paint Company. Linda Van Meter owns a clothing store, specializing in styles for junior petites. Dwight Higgs and Glenn Higgs own Higgs & Higgs Used Cars.

Did you, by any chance, see where Debby Richeson McDaniel won the Olympic ice-skating championship? She was always a tremendous skater. I phoned to congratulate her, and she told me that Mike Lilley and Lonnie Waymoth are investigators for the F.B.I. They are in the arson division.

Wasn't it great, Bill Starr winning the Nobel Peace Prize? And, I'm so anxious for Gary Brummer's new book to be published. He spent ten years of research on pre-marital sex before he wrote one word.

John Monnet, James Scott, and Frank Chisler have formed a new cycle club. They call themselves "The Heavens's Devils." The Chicago Motor Club is now owned by Gary Koester, Mark Fuesting, Larry Patton and Paul Deters. Our new baseball team--The Purple Sox - may have a chance at the pennant this year with Roger Pagel as manager and those outstanding rookies Jim Phillips, Greg Habbe, Ken Koenig, and Delbert "Red" Morgan.

Randy Hakman draws the ads for Heath Ice Cream Bars. Shirley Ziegler Hoene is the first woman marine. Linda Boone Pagel is a WAC. Doris Bowman manufactures bows and arrows, and Judy Buening makes bean bags. Cheryl Henderson sells insurance. Pat, of Pat McWhorter's Salvage Yard, has hired Ronnie Walls, Mike Budde, and John Jackson as chief mechanics.

I hear that Kelly Newburn is a chef at Diamonds here in Chicago. When I had dinner there last week, I saw Judy Ricketts, who has traveled over the U.S. as an Evangelist, and Steve Upton. Because of his unique ability to converse, he was a special guest on Johnny Carson's Show. John Hartleroad plays championship hockey with the Red Barons. I wonder if he could beat Mr. Neet? That reminds me, did you know that Richard Poynter is teaching school? He has eight study halls a day. Patsy Ricketts owns a cricket farm. Pam Leith and Donna Nippe work at the Ramada Inn. Don Stuckey is a Methodist minister. He and Terry Varner are trying to convert Charles Shelley and Bruce Long. Charles has developed a new formula for shelli beans and Bruce owns a chain of Gulf Filling Stations. Judi Beyer Macklin now lives in Indiana with Ronnie. Judy Loy, Elaine Hirtzel, Sheila Kralman, and Joyce Lilley are airline stewardesses in Chicago for T.W.A.

Some of our classmates have been a surprise to me. Many have reached their intended goal. I hope they are all happy. Maybe during our reunion in five years we will see more changes in the ever successful Class of '66.

Always,
Janet

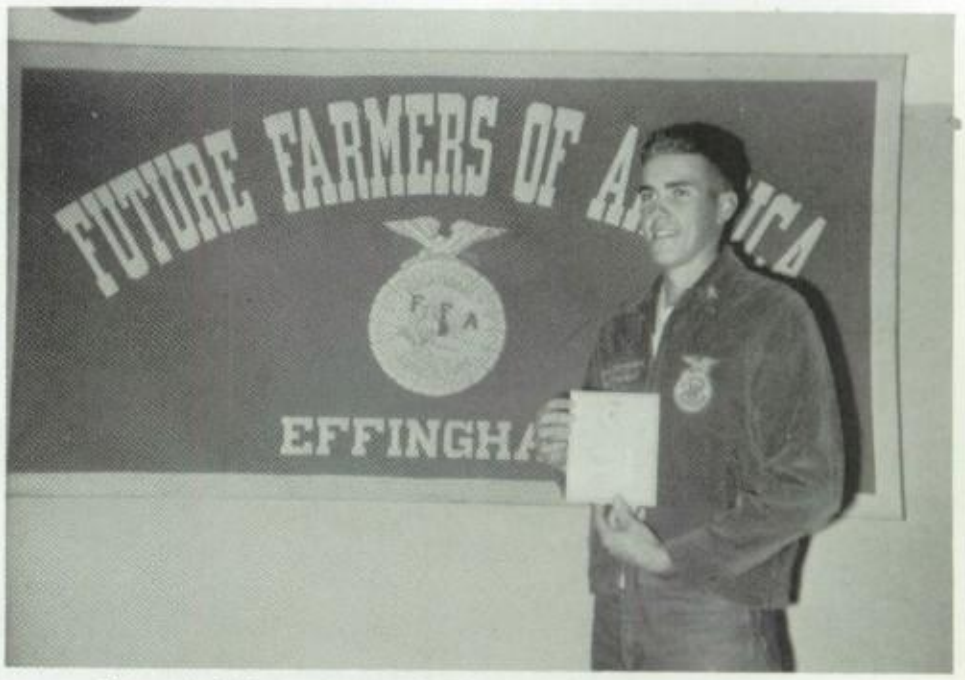
Any student enrolled in vocational agricultural classes may be a member of this organization. F.F.A. helps its members develop leadership and citizenship. The Effingham F.F.A. Chapter was represented in several contests and activities this year. It had two Section 20 production award winners. They were Perry Colclasure in corn production and Dennis Marxmann in Small Grains production.

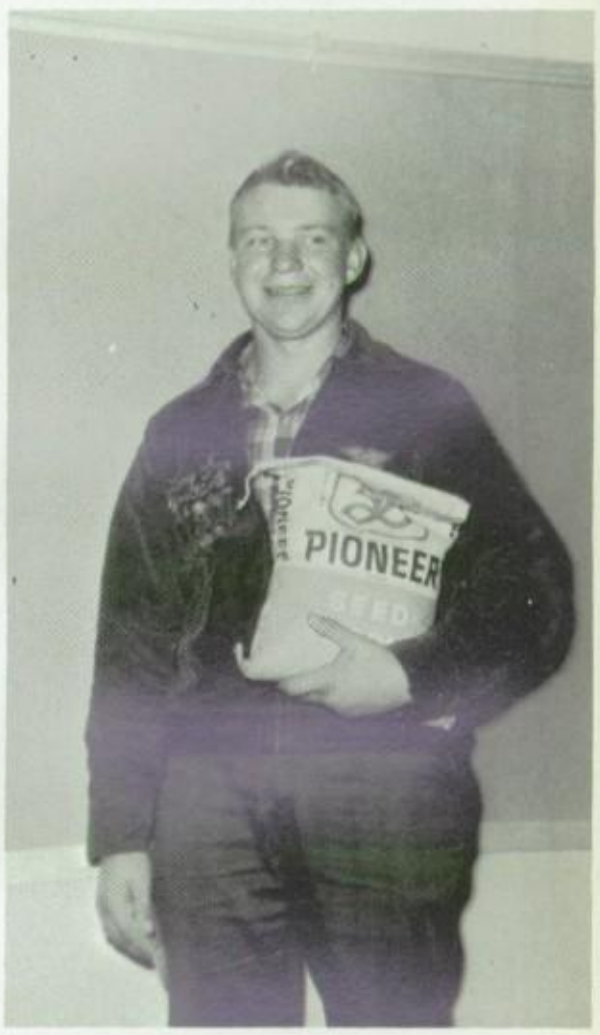
Bob Weaver--Outstanding Ag Student



Dennis Marxman--Winner of the State Small Grain Contest

Perry Colclasure--Winner of Section 20 Corn production contest

Ron Williams and Lee Sims winners of the pest control contest are presented with a check by Jerry Goen.



Larry Tonn--Winner of the pioneer Extra Yield Contest

Class projects keep the boys busy.

Dear Judy,

I would like to wish you the very best of luck in the future. You are one of the sweetest girls I know and the very dearest friend a guy could ever have. I can't thank you enough for all the times you have helped me out of the dumps and discouraging moods I've been in.

Never forget the fun times we used to have with the rest of the gang!

Always keep your shining personality and your warm, friendly, keen smile.

Always a friend,
